

DO WE HAVE SLOGANS (SLOW GUNS) AT TEEN CAMP?--NO!--WE HAVE FAST GUNS!

Quips Composed by the Teens at the Mexico Teen Training Camp, July 1986

—Be wise, memorise!
 —Please obey, get a verse today!
 —Memorisation, a daily sensation!
 —A verse a day keeps the doubts away!
 —The primary purpose of memorisation is to keep you in touch with the Man of Salvation!
 —Memorise daily & review, then you can attack the Devil, instead of him attacking you!
 —Today is getting better but tomorrow could get worse, if we don't redeem the time & memorise a verse.
 —2Tim.2:2 is what we're all supposed to do!
 —1Cor.11:1 is what we all should become!
 —First memory, then review, then let it soak in through & through.
 —Keep the Word in your heart, & your sword will stay sharp.
 —When you're busy quoting the Word, the Devil's lies seem so absurd.
 —The law of memory is repeat, & the Devil you'll defeat!
 —With the Word in your heart, you won't fall apart!
 —Memorise & grow in size!
 —He who hides the Word away, lives to fight another day.
 —Get your inspiration from daily memorisation!
 —Every morning when you rise, take some time to memorise!
 —To start the day, memorise & pray!
 —The Devil cowers when you hide, Jesus' Words deep inside. And when you claim them, Satan flees, knowing Jesus hears your pleas!
 —Jesus, help me do my part, hiding Your Word deep in my heart. Then Jesus, help me to obey, to take Your Love & give it away!
 —First things first: Hide that verse!
 —Memorise daily all you can, so soon you'll be a David's Mighty Man!
 —To start the day out right, memorise, then fight, Teens, Fight!
 —For good concentration try memorisation!
 —If you want your faith to grow in size, read the Word & memorise.
 —If you're down in the pit, don't quit, learn the Word & the Devil will split!
 —Search the Scriptures, pick a verse, learn it well & then rehearse.
 —Learn the Word, yes, that's the way, to chase your blues & doubts away!
 —With complications of personal relations, you tend to lose your concentration.
 —Memorisation, you will find, will help you capture thoughts & mind.

—If you love the Lord with all your heart, you'll memorise & do your part.
 —1Peter 2:2 is what you must apply to you, 'cause we are still new-born babes, who need the Word to make us brave.
 —If the time you'll redeem, then there's no way to daydream.
 —Don't keep dazing, just keep praising!
 —When the Devil comes in with his doubts & lies, sock him with the Word, right between the eyes!
 —Redeem the time & you'll surely shine, but hurry up, we're running out of time!
 —Memorisation is a sensation, it's fighting with a Word invasion!
 —The Word, the Word, the Word!—Hide it in your heart! If you memorise your verse, you're off to a real good start!
 —Looking for a way of escape?—Memorise before it gets too late!
 —Battle raging in your mind? Quick grab hold of a memory line!
 —Wherewithall shall we cleanse our way?—By memorising every day.
 —Let's rebuke daydreaming, leave it behind, & put God's Word in our hearts & mind!
 —Ah, daydreaming, what a waste! The King's business calls for haste! Forget these thoughts of little worth! We're out to win the planet Earth!

—1Peter 2:2 is what you must apply to you, 'cause we are still newborn babes, who need the Word to make us brave.

MY PROTECTIVE SHIELD!

By Uncle Shaul

I claimed a verse this morning,
 And I hid it deep inside;
 Then the Devil started fighting,
 Oh, he really, really tried
 To trip me up, to knock me down,
 To make me go his way,
 Discourage, hinder, and oppress,
 In short, to have my day.
 "Get back, you cannot touch me,
 For my protective shield
 Are all those precious promises
 With which my heart is filled!
 Take that, you rat, get out of here!
 Not one inch can you claim,
 For I have hid God's promises,
 And rebuke you in Jesus' Name!"
 So if you too will defeat the Foe,
 And keep him far from thee,
 Just claim that verse & then rehearse
 From God's Word, joyfully!
 Yes, start out early, hide it deep;
 As soon as you open your eyes,
 Grab your Memory Book & read!
 Resist the Devil & memorise!
