

just let go and let God do it through you with the help of one or more of His "holy ghosts"! I love you and hope this will be an encouragement to you!

Love, your Becky.
P.S. Later I also found out that when she became a Christian, they gave her a new Christian name—Rebecca!

"Thank God for His 'holy ghosts'!—Have you got one?"

("More Holy Ghosts!")

No. 621:64 by Father David.)

The Holy Spirit is everywhere and leads everybody.—How? Well, I think he does it partly through these holy spirits, His angels and these spirit beings, these departed saintly spirits, one or more of which is assigned to each of us who have this new anointing or empowerment of the spirit! (620:44)

We've got the benefit now of such a tremendous collection of departed saints...Why, He's got people available for anything you want to know, for anything that needs to be done. (620:67)

You just need to want it and receive it and have the faith to give it. "Ask, and it shall be given you..." (Mt. 7:7) (620:68)

Mark 16:15!—By Boat!

Dear Family,

Before joining the Family, I had been building a 27-foot sailing boat to obey Mark 16:15. I was saved and had been reading Matthew 24, and so I really had the end-time vision and a desire to "go..." and preach the Gospel!" I was almost finished with it when I met the Family and joined. We did finish the boat, together, and a year later when the Letter "Choice" came out, I received the faith to ask my leaders if we could use it. They agreed, so we did and sailed down to another Hawaiian Island where we witnessed and litnessed and won seven disciples. On the return trip, we were caught in a storm and the boat sank, the four of us aboard escaping and waiting to be rescued in a rubber raft for five days.

Before the RNR, I voiced my desire to get a rubber rafting vessel.

but I was discouraged from doing so. But now I'd like to share my vision, hoping that others may want to do it too, or perhaps that my story would open the door to our obtaining a good, 50-foot plus ocean-going sailing vessel, complete with kitchen, bedrooms, navigational equipment, etc.

Here's what MO has to say on the subject: "I'm not much for boating, not having had much experience along that line... but some of you guys seem to have the faith for it, and that's one way of travelling for the Truth, so don't let me discourage you from island-hopping for Jesus or coastal sailing for the Lord in the quieter waters of... Indonesian Islands, South Sea Isles, etc. God bless you!" ("Have Faith Will Travel!" No. 150:6 by Father David.)

Some advantages of using a sailing boat are: There would be no more rent and it would be mobile, allowing you freedom to pioneer whole new areas and countries and you'd already have your Home when you arrived so you could immediately start getting out the Message and reaching the people. But the boat would have to be big enough to pick up disciples and weather storms. That's why I'm interested in one that's at least 50-feet. We could also use it to transport Visiting Servants around the Islands.

More from MO on boat travel: "We're going to have to do it again one of these days when the planes run out of fuel and the cars run out of gas. I'm sure this will probably be one of the major means of travel in God's miraculous millenium and heavenly new earth. What a relief! Thank God! Why not try it today, you might like it!" ("Boat Travel" No. 337C:11-13 by Father David.)

Amen!! Anybody have a burden and/or a boat that we can use? It's gotta be a real good one, seaworthy, preferably a fiberglass hull or if wood, teak wood. And last but not least from MO: "So God may let us have a few ships, but we're either going to have to paddle them or they'll go by sail again, nice and quiet, no pollution, no smoke..." ("Little Nuggets" No. 651:72 by Father David.) God bless you! Love, Daniel Noah; Philippines. (Editor: GBY, Daniel, for your vision and faith! See his want ad below!)

TO MY ONLY TRUE LOVE!

Oh how I long for something pure and something clear to say
Now that the evening falls
after a long confusing day.
My heart goes out to beauty,
my hands reach out to you,
When I behold your image,
I see my dream come true.

In your eyes I read the calmness
of a heavenly, happy place
Where everything is harmony,
and hate's by love erased.
And in your smile I see the tenderness and love you have for all
And how you are concerned about what may us all befall.

I long so to lie with you
in the warmth of your protection
To make together with you that infinite connection
With the Spirit that's much higher than I ever dreamed could be Oh, David, would you love me and take hold of me?

Please take me to a place where
I can feel my way through life,
Where Someone always understands,
to where there's no more strife.
I need your hand to guide me,
your words to hold me high,
Your standard to abide by,
your presence ever nigh.

For in this life, my David,
I live for no other thing
Than for your love and guidance,
and of your love I sing.
You'll always be my hope
for a happier, brighter day
When Jesus sends me to you,
and you'll kiss my hurts away.
—From your little lover,

THE FAMILY NEWS OF LOVE! —BY YOU!

Vol. 4, No. 8 D.O.

Edited by Maria & The Zs.

Living "One Wife!"

The good fruits and results when a sister with a "Real Mothers" vision becomes one with a family of six children!—In their own words!—Delia Nubes and Matthew & Renee Canada; Bilbao, Spain.

From Delia Nubes:

Dearest Papá,

After years of working in offices or as the childcare helper of leaders, the Lord has given me the chance to be part of Matthew and Renee Canada's family with their six children. I'm thankful for the privilege, because I've always hoped to be able to find a way to help the parents on the field, and now I can truly understand their anxieties and problems.

I look at Augustin, number six child, three weeks old, and I think of the "Davidito" Letters and wonder, now how are these Letters going to become a reality in his life, while at the same time Renee and I are trying to take care of the other five, educate them, get them and ourself witnessing and litnessing. FF, take care of Matthew and also the single brothers and at the same time keep the household running.

I believe our only solution is to really live "One Wife" and be "one family", because these poor moms can't do it all! We need people who want to be willing to do anything, anytime, anywhere for the Lord's Work!

Since we have started sharing more sexually with the brothers in the Home, they have begun to feel much more a part of the Family and have been helping much more and showing more interest.

But what we also need are "real mothers"—sisters who want to become parts of these smaller family units and give their lives to help some of these parents—whether it means weeks, months or years of their lives. I'm so thankful for this experience,

Love, Delia Nubes.

From Renee Canada:

Dearest MO, Maria and all with you, I'm really grateful Matthew has this new love for Delia, as now I don't have to go it alone trying to be a good wife, mother of six, homemaker, FF'er, etc. Since Matthew and Delia have this love for each other,

She has become a "real mother" to our children. Now that Matthew has a new inspiration, he has been doing things that I had been hoping for for years! Delia and I share the same hopes, joys, cares, tears and love for the brethren too, and so far it's borne good fruit in all of us. All this is something I've been praying for for a very long time.

We all really want to follow the Letters, so there's no fear that I'll be put away or my children separated as happened to many couples in the past. But because of the love shown in your Letters, we can all be one big, happy, loving family—free to do God's Will! Keep writing those Letters! So glad you put the Family back into yours and the Lord's hands!

—Love, Renee of M.C.

From Matthew Canada:

Dear MO & Maria,

I'm so happy! I'm so overwhelmed by the continual changes that have happened in my life since you initiated the RNR! I can honestly say that it has reached the grassroots, and my most sincere desire is to help spread it out. Truly a little bit of love really, really goes a long way!

I got married over seven years ago and the Lord has given us six precious children: Sara (6), Isabelle (4½), twins Sascha and Nathalie (2½), Francisco (1) and Augustin (3 weeks). My greatest burden has been to try to give the children the same love you have given us, but it was pretty hard at times, as I felt like such a dandy bad example of a father myself.

Most of the time we have been "on the field" and I never seemed to be able to give them the attention I wanted, as we had so many other responsibilities. So usually the children were left out of the picture, and I think it really hindered them at times.

We'd read all the exciting testimonies of children in "school colonies" doing skits, performances, singing and really being used as an
