

IN MY HOUR OF NEED

My love comes to me
In my hour of need
And lifts me up
With some loving deed.

Perhaps it's small,
But yet it's there,
A passing thing
We briefly share.

A loving look
Or a smile that's kind,
Or the right thing said
That's just in time!

To lift me up
And help me through
My trying times,
And start anew.

And through this help
She gives, I see
The surest proof
That God loves me.

And sends me help
To carry on
Through darkest hours
Afore the dawn.

Reactions to "Proclaim Liberty!"

by PAUL & MARIANNE,
V.S.'s of FRANCE

Dearest Dad & Maria, 7 June 78

We are now travelling in the eastern part of France and French Switzerland and are taking a day off to rest and write. We stopped in a little hotel on top of Mount Saleve (Aaron's mountain), and it is so quiet and beautiful: pure air, sunshine and snow-topped mountains all around, with Switzerland on one side and France on the other! What a wonderful life God gives us to enjoy! David's children are indeed the happiest on earth!

"Proclaim Liberty!" Wow! Amen! We are glad and happy and thankful! TYJ! PTL! The Lord and you have so much faith in us! What a sample of love and mercy and trust! We were so thrilled when we received this Letter!

The following morning, on the 2nd of June, we read the "Daily Might No. 2" for day 2. It was such a confirmation! "Thou shalt now be freed from this former yoke of bondage and liberated to do My Will!" "Forget not thy King, for He doth unlock thy bracelets and hath dropped the chains off thee... We are free, free, free! Thank God! Hallelujah! Free to do His Will, free to follow Him whithersoever He leadeth, to abandon the boundaries of man for the boundless abundance of God!!" What a challenge!

That day we were in a small Home where there was a very sweet and precious couple who really do love the Lord and want to serve Him, but were very scared of FF'ing and sharing sexually, to the point that they confessed they did not even read the FF Letters because it was too much for them.

They felt they could not meet the Revolution requirements and were really under condemnation. We shared with them our own experiences, fears and battles and the great victories, and this really encouraged them to face their fears.

"Proclaim Liberty!" encouraged them so much, to see they could now fit and they could go at their speed and have their place in the Family. We know they will get the victory over FF'ing as now they have decided to try! TYJ!

Also in Geneva, we met a very sweet American brother who had not been able to really fit anywhere in the Family. He was with a Swiss girl whom he has trained. He keeps singing and distributing Letters which he buys from the Home. He was kind of a rebel, keeping a long beard and extremely long hair.

When he heard "Proclaim Liberty!" he shaved and trimmed his hair and decided to report and become a real Home, sending in 11%, just because he did not feel bound anymore!

We are very thrilled, too, about this new law of comics! We were looking into a bookstore and saw that the comics and magazines were taking more and more space. My mother, who is an English teacher, now uses textbooks in comic form. We have seen in this same bookstore a serious "history of France" in comic form—which would have highly offended the French pride not so long ago! So it really is a sign of the times, and we love the new comics coming out!

We are so thankful for having experienced your sample, to have been able to see it work, so we can better inspire others to do the same! We love you sooooo much and pray for your happiness and health and strength daily. Loads of kisses to sweet Davidito too and all the precious ones around you that we love so much!—Paul & Marianne.

LOVE'S "LIBERTY!"

I love you more than words can say
I love you more & more each day
In proclaiming Love's great "Liberty!"
You've set my aching heart so free!

All for Love and Love for all!
We want to willingly heed your call!
To arms! To arms! In this battle fierce

With the Sword of His Words
Their hearts we'll pierce!

The arms of love to hold and warm
Those lost and dying from all harm.

His great forgiveness covers all
Even when we sin and fall.

You threw your line to pull us near

We'll never leave you, Father dear!
Tho' we've been bad, don't kick
us out,

Of Family Love there's now no doubt!

We're free! We're free! Love's
"Liberty!"

To win for Love, and willingly!
I love you forever, your Ruthie.

The Spirit-Queen of Love!

From Abraham Snowman whose "Elixir of Love!" comic inspired the MO Letter "Goddess of Love!"

Dearest Dad and wonderful Maria, It's hard to express my incredible joy and happiness upon seeing that cover (of "Elixir of Love!" comic) all covered in red (Dad's writing). Love's colour! How can I love you enough? How can I give you enough? It's so wonderful that She wants to use my hands to make some nice pictures that inspire and satisfy your heart! What more can I do than satisfy your heart!

If the Spirit-Queen of Love wants to keep on pouring Her Golden Seeds into our hearts, there will be more and more of these comics

Illustration by Abraham Snowman from "Elixir of Love" comic by Father David.

coming. Philippe really got hit by the Spirit Queen of Love fever and has already started drawing Her next exploits in "My Love is the Wild Wind", where She will be trying to clude David's grasp until, of course, they end in final fond embrace. So you certainly will hear more of Her soon!

Hart wants to dig into Her history, Her first appearance in a MO Letter in "Old Love, New Love!", and Jacob Sailor wants to follow Her in victorious confrontation against "Opellexicon"; while we hope to convince Samson to report in vivid shots the death-struggle of "America the Whore".

If I'm still in Her loving graces after "Goddess of Love", I hope to make some love with Her in "Love-making in the Spirit". But whether "Flesh or Spirit", "You Are the Love of God"—that's what we always will tell Her in "Spiritual Communications" though "Prayer" as She leads us to the "World Conquest Thru' Love" because we can now "Sock It To 'Em, That's The Spirit".

Our Love will grow like a big "Spirit Tree" whose "Golden Seeds" will bear fruit in "Holy Holes" because "Love Never Fails", no matter if "Chinese Spirits" arise, "The Spirit of God" will go on with the help of "Atlanta" and "Mocumbaba", all these "Holy Ghosts" and "More Holy Ghosts" until "Lord Byron's Surrender" and every place is a "Shangri-La" in a new and exciting "Spirit World" "Out of This World" where "God's Only Law Is Love" and the sweetest of old men opens his enormous big book full of more Spirit stories that the sweetest of all girls has written down the night before! Hallelujah!

"She" really does everything! It's not in me. I like it, I love it, as I love you both so much, as I love

Her! Your son forever in Her Love, Abe.

P.S. The cover of "Elixir of Love" was inked in while I was listening to your "Loving You" sounds! Never in my life did the lines come out so well! Marina was sleeping in my bed, sometimes waking up to your voice and smiling back to sleep. She's the one who inspired me to work on it. God bless her!

Love's Healing Power!

How a sister, in obedience to a dream, made love and was miraculously healed!

God's Love is the answer to everything! The day of miracles is not past, as the Lord proved recently in our Home!

During the last week of May, I received serious first and second degree burns while fixing supper when boiling water from a pressure cooker released and sprayed on me. After immediate prayer, I was taken to the hospital for treatment.
