Family Care News!

Dear Sara D.
GBYI WE JUST MAILED
OFF THE "DITO INDEX" to you for approval. Last week the whole Home spent most of their time proofreading it, looking up references & checking them off the rough draft. So it was quite a job. I pray we spotted most of the mistakes. Zeb did some nice little artwork to make it. a job. I pray we spotted most of the mistakes. Zeb did some nice little artwork to make it more interesting & also for our own layout convenience. Now we want to do the Dito Letters as they come out so it won't be such a big job next time.—And we'd like to start the Techi Letters soon also!

KIDS KOMIX: We were so excited to get the phone call the other night telling us that the covers of the Kids Komix were approved & we were to colour them! Vol. 1 & 2 front covers are finished & the back covers will be real soon.

TAPES: By now you should have received for approval "No Matter How Small You Are", a tape of Granupa quotes in song! Zeb, Peul & Robyn did most of the singing on it, GBTI Baby Sarah was there most of the time also—so good, not making a sound, just like she knows it's an important job & she needs to a sound, just like she knows it's an important job & she needs to be good.

PROJECT PLANS: Terry & I will be working on the Childcare book project, doing the corrections of the items you have sent back. Paul will be working on the Kid's Mag. & Zeb on parts 3 & 4 of "Tom the Gangster" so that the Vol. 2 Kids Komix will be complete. Ben is working on transcribing tapes of "7000 Years of World History—The Dark Ages" & putting together quotes & working on Paul's research material that he did a couple of years ago. He is now typing up the quotes for the first rough draft of this class.

SEAN'S BROKEN ARM: Dan, Zeb & myself were on a visa trip. On the way home on the bus I had a dream that Paul told me that Sean-B had broken his arm. I prayed for all the children back home & did not think about it again until we got home, & that is the first thing I was told!

SEAN HAD BEER CLIMB-ING UP THE SIDE OF THE HOUSE off the big dining room & reaching for the fruit of the tree, which he knew he should not do, when he lost his balance & fell, breaking 2 bones in his right arm. While Paul got a splint & bandage, TERRY STARTED TO

TERRY STARTED TO QUOTE PSALM 23. He started to say it with her & stopped crying right away. Then they took him to a local hospital where they did x-rays. They said they might have to operate to pin the bones together. While waiting for the specialist, Terry spent this time with Sean going over all the verses & Grandpa quotes we had put to song. He was so good & brave, hardly complaining, even tho' he had to lie still on a stretcher the whole time.

PAUL & TERRY REALLY PRAYED that the bones would just have to be set & not pinned. TTL, the specialist agreed. At the hospital it was a real testimony as no cre ever easked once if Paul & Terry were the parents. They just assumed they were by the way they took care of Sean, & he had so much confidence in them & never once cried for Mummy & Daddy, really a sample of "One Wife", PTL! Love, Sarah Ireland & all.
