

PHOTO 26: Phoebe, Lydia, Johanes, Joy & Zach arriving from Norway!—Such a sweet team & a great blessing to the work!

(WHEW!—AND LOOK AT THAT LITTLE PHOEBE would you! Maria says Windy's got competition now. Hallelujah! I always did fall in love with girls with smiles like hers & that impish gleam in her eyes.)

Photo 27: Preparation: French Francoise fixes the girls' hair & make-up, as well as full of good ideas for costumes & set-ups! We couldn't do without her!

(SPEAKING OF IMPISH GLEAMS, Francoise, you look like you're really performing magical tricks on the girls' hair to enhance their beauty with one of our most beauteous beauties!)

(PAUL WITH HIS MULTITUDE OF BEAUTIES high on a windy hill, makes my heart stand still.)

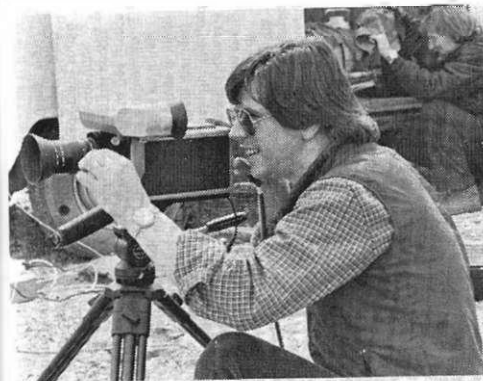

PHOTO 29: We set up our equipment in Michael's van to facilitate the operation.—Paul checking the focus, Zach reading the monitor. We're all set!

(HOW WE OPERATE WITH OUR MINI-EQUIPMENT out of a mini-bus is just one of our many minis in our great ministry of the minis.)

PHOTO 30: The girls are ready! All these lovelies are: German Maria, Joan, Danish Suzanne, German Karen, Norwegian Lydia & Phoebe, Topaz & Endureth.

(THAT BEVY OF BEAUTIES on that windy hill is enough to be a show-stopper on anybody's TV!)

PHOTO 31: Lovely Norwegian beauty Phoebe, who is a real blessing already with our children & secretarial work, but also has a lovely voice, sings in Italian & is a pretty decoration to our video show! Wait till you see her belly-dancing for the Gypsy King!!!

(OUR LITTLE PHOEBE looks almost exactly like one of my first little sweethearts. Makes my heart go pitty-pat all over again! It reminds me so much of that German co-star, the dancer in "Can-Can", with that impish smile & the pixy eyes with the come-hither look. Here I come! You asked for it!)

PHOTO 32: "Multitudes no man can number, as the waters cover the seas, multitudes are coming together, come, look and see!"

(REMEMBER GALS, you always look your most beautiful & inviting like that with your arms over your heads waiting to be attacked.)
