

A black and white illustration showing three people hanging upside down in a forest. The person on the left is a woman with long dark hair, wearing a headscarf and a long dress. The person in the middle is a man with a beard and a headscarf, also in a long dress. The person on the right is a woman with long dark hair, wearing a headscarf and a long dress. They are all looking upwards. Musical notes are floating around them. Text floating around them includes: "Praise the Lord of hosts!", "Praise God's holy name!", "Praise the Lord of hosts!", "Praise the Lord of hosts!", "Praise the Lord of hosts!", "Praise the Lord of hosts!".

So Mary had the baby right there in the barn!—And she wrapped him up in swaddling clothes—that means like little baby blankets. And she laid him in a manger—a feedtrough.

Mary and Joseph had to travel a long way to their hometown of Bethlehem. And they got there just in time, because Mary was about to have the baby!

In Matthew it tells us how an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream to prepare him for the shocking news!

"Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost: and she shall bring forth a Son, and thou shalt call His name Jesus: for He shall save His people from their sins."

But Jesus is still here with us tonight!
How do you celebrate Christmas?
With Santa Claus, a red-nosed reindeer and jingle bells! And presents for each other? - Or with Jesus and presents for Him?!

Give Him your heart today!
You can simply ask Jesus into your heart with this simple prayer: "Jesus forgive me my sins and help me to love You and others by Your Spirit! Help me to read Your Word and obey it and try to help others. In Jesus' Name. Amen."

 The FIRST CHRISTMAS!
Edited by Philippe and Graze Illustrated by Philippe La Plume

Once upon a time there was a beautiful young girl only 16 years old who was engaged to be married to a poor young carpenter in a little village in Northern Palestine, or Israel, named Nazareth, and his name was Joseph, and her name was Maria, or Mary.

And one night the archangel Gabriel suddenly appeared to her! Just think what a wonderful good sweet girl she must have been for God to pick her, you might say, almost for His wife, to become the mother of His Son!

Fear not, Mary, for thou hast found favour with God. And, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb and bring forth a Son, and shalt call His name Jesus. He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest and the Lord God shall give unto Him the throne of His father David.

Behold, the handmaiden of the Lord; be it unto me according to thy word.

The Lord's angel appeared to Joseph to prepare him for this shocking news that his wife was going to have a baby by someone else!

Fear not to take unto thee Mary, thy wife: for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost.
