

much like Daddy!!

47. WHEN ALFRED AND DITO VISITED THE LOCAL FARM, the Farmer let them see all his baby animals. Then he gave Davidito a big bunch of bananas and said, "This is for the Canario!"

48. ALL OUR SPANISH FRIENDS WONDERED WHEN WE WERE GOING TO BAPTISE DAVIDA IN THE CATHOLIC CHURCH. When we asked Daddy's counsel on this, since everyone was so curious, Dad said, "Well, tell it like it is! Tell them 'Yes, we believe in God, Jesus and Mary, but our baby has already been prayed for, just not in the church building.'"

49. WE WERE CAREFUL NOT TO

OFFEND THE PEOPLE, but they all understood this because they knew that Dad was a man of God and if he had prayed for the baby, then she was surely blessed! Hallelujah!

The Prince's Garden

Art by Samson Warner. Typed by Abigail Warner. Layout by Jacob Sailor, Photowork by Enoch Cameron.

"TODDLER FUN!"--14 Mos. Old--By Sara Davidito. 4/76
--Chapter 28 of "Davidito".

DFO S-25

1. HOPE YOU ARE ENJOYING THIS STORY! Sorry it's taking so long, but as you can see, we've got quite a story to tell! Well, here comes another adventure of the Little Brown Prince. We love you! XXX!

2. AT ONLY 14 MONTHS OLD DAVIDITO IS CALLED "THE CHILD PSYCHOLOGIST" by Daddy because he always interrupts our conversations about him if he happens to overhear his name. It's so cute how, when he sees us all in discussion together, he runs into the middle of the crowd and bends back in a merry little way, then stretches his arms way out and does a great big "stage laugh", or claps his hands together and smiles real big, like, "Hi, gang! I'm here! Now the fun begins!"

3. WHEN STANDING AT THE BUS 273

STOP WITH ALFRED, DAVIDITO SAW A VERY SAD-LOOKING TEENAGE GIRL waiting for the bus. He stared at her for quite a while, then reached up for her hand and gave her a sweet kiss. This is his way of showing real affection, and he did this even after the time he could talk well.--Whenever he felt that he had hurt someone's feelings or he felt sorry for someone, he'd kliss them and look at them with very mellow, loving eyes.--Such a sweetheart!

4. THE NEW BABY: IT WASN'T UNTIL DAVIDA WAS ABOUT A MONTH OLD that I was able to begin taking care of Davidito again most of the day. Dad and Maria would sometimes come to visit the new baby and pray for her when I was feeding her. Dad said, "I look at them when they're newborn, then I