47. AS HE WALKED IN HE DISCOVERED HE WAS ONLY KNEE-HIGH TO ALL 60 SETS OF LEGS! It was a little frightening, so we encouraged new acquaintances to squat down to talk to him, when introduced. He did recognise a few familiar faces, but was very shy and nervous, hiding behind my skirt most of the time.

48. HE GAVE HIS NEW YEAR VERSE TO A FEW PEOPLE: "DIOS ES AMOR" I Jn.4:8 in Spanish, and he finally fell asleep on the bed in the late hours of the night during our New Year's Candlelight Service. Our New Year's desire for 1977 was to be obedient and helpful servants to God and the King, and to be loving, spirited parents for our Little Prince! PTL and Happy New Year!

TWO YEARS OLD--"KING OF THE ELVES!"--By Sara Davidito. DFO-S-36. --Chapter 39 of "Davidito". January, 1977.

1. TIME WITH MOMMY AND DADDY: When Davidito sees Mommy and Daddy wearing their gold necklaces or medallions he puts them into the palm of his hand and gives them a sweet kiss.

2. DADDY HAD A DREAM ON THE SECOND OF JANUARY THAT DAVIDITO IS THE KING OF THE ELVES, the king of the knomes. "He pretends to be just a baby", Dad said, "but he's really smarter than all the rest of us put together!"

3. ONE NIGHT DADDY WANTED TO GIVE DAVIDITO A LITTLE PLASTIC WHISTLE, but Mommy said, "Well, he's busy right now looking at his stamp collection; I don't think he'd show much interest in a little toy." Ha!

4. WHEN MOMMY WALKED INTO THE BEDROOM TO PAY HIM A LITTLE VISIT, Davidito had just noticed that some of the stamps were misplaced in his book due to our quick packing. Alfred asked, "Hey, who messed up our book?", and Dito said to me in a very disgusted voice, "Oh, Sara!", and pushed me aside to crawl up on the bed so he could help Alfred fix the stamp book before he showed it off to Mommy.
