Dearest Dad & Maria,

I love you more and more everyday! As you said, the baby (Arthur) has been keeping busy! He has made some tremendous progress, although this past week has been one of somewhat difficult transformation from the old into the new.

One of the hardest things he knows he needs to learn is how to share with others. He really wants to learn. The entrance exams are the hardest! I think the times when he was all alone over in his flat just before he quit, was the worst thing for him too, because he needed our strength continually. It was even more humbling for him to go back and quit his job the second time. I thank God for all your letters which really did give me the faith to help him. I love you!

I LOVE EVERYTHING ABOUT YOU DAD, YOUR WORDS, YOUR WAYS, YOUR EVERYTHING !!

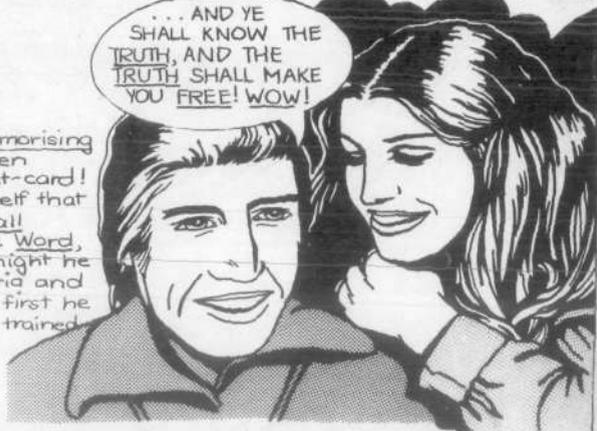

WHEN I KISS YOU BECKY I'M KISSING DAD AND MARIA! ♥

He's a big responsibility, I realise that, so I don't want to let the load down by neglecting him. He has a lot of drive, determination, and willingness to do his job. He told me he is learning one of the hardest lessons in his life, and that is that he is having to admit that I know more than he does about so many things and that I'm more mature than he is in every way, and that I have had more experience in life than he has had. So, in spite of a few trials, he is coming through great! Everyday now he is memorising his set-card and I have been helping him to review his set-card! He just can't believe it himself that he has been in the victory all week! I told him it was the Word, and he agreed! Then that night he told me how much alike Maria and I make love and he said at first he thought we must have been trained under the same tutor! I really laughed---Ha! We did!

... AND YE SHALL KNOW THE TRUTH, AND THE TRUTH SHALL MAKE YOU FREE! WOW!

Lots of love, Your Becky!

Dearest Dad & Maria, (from Arthur)

How can I thank you enough for saving me as you have done by giving to me Jesus! I still can't believe that I am here, in a totally different world from that hectic hustle and bustle, and never-ending treadmill I knew as life in the system as a systemite! Well, I've been in the Revolution now for two months and I am so involved in it now that I forget what used to be my life working for my own self-righteous self and materialistic glorification of some. It is a real privilege to be working with such a people as I do, for the boss that I do, and for the vision and results that we seek. There are so many new things to discover

Thank-you Jesus
for Thy Word!!

everyday, and of late, the power of prayer! Wow! The more I get into the Bible, the more it moves into my life a storehouse from which to draw and feed! Becky is tanning the Ram with God's help! She is a hard task-master, and I must admit it hurts sometimes, but only in the flesh and that damned pride which is of no account whatsoever. How thrilled I am about Becky being pregnant! What an honour! I do hope I can justify God bestowing it on me and work with true diligence for His glory! The faith you have in me has sharpened my whole nature, and security-consciousness, which was by pure faith up to this point, is now a full-time job worked at constantly. This has really brought home to me the work I can do for the Lord in helping Becky to help you. A few weeks ago, my pride really reached bottom: my ten-story stack was level with the pavement! At last I asked God to do with me as He willed, and meant it, knowing I had little to taste the love of God as I have!

 Lord, help me to remember all the details! How exciting my life is now!
 --- living at last! God bless you Maria my love! -- How I love the little, loving, lively, liberal, laughing lily with lasting love, the leo of the Lord, a lamb lent lovingly in love to lamm this lackey with the love of God!

I love you both so much!
 Bye for now, Arthur.

Dear Arthur!

We're just thrilled at how you're doing and going! I'm sorry I had to run off and leave you, but as you can see, the Lord gave you someone even better in my place -- someone who was able to help you more than I was, and who would give you the care you needed and whom you could protect and take care of in return.

So the Lord was faithful and didn't leave you comfortless! -- and we certainly are thrilled with the results!

We love you very much and thank God daily for you and Becky! God bless you!
Love, Maria.

...pride left, and I had reached the stage of usefulness for God's Work. Until I reached this point I knew I could be of no use to God and really feared rejection because of my stubborn pride. But my job and my life started to take on a whole new meaning. I prayed for usefulness and WHAM! I'm so happy!

My relationship with Becky is also getting stronger as I learn to keep my eyes on the goal ahead and off my selfish carnal desires. This Libra of David has been a master match for me! She pokes at my very foundations and I feel the ground shake as she enlarges the holes in my pride with her love of God and her natural gentleness! Thank you for everything! How I count my blessings!

I would love to help write "King Arthurs' Nights" and recount my story!
 I would love to do whatever is necessary to encourage other people
