

The Jeanne Manson Revelations!

EDITED BY GRACE PHILITE
ILLUSTRATED BY PHILIPPE LA PLUME

Maria, we have to send this prayer letter to her!

Dear Jeane,
 I've got a number tonight try with us. I'll be there I'll be there

WASTEBASKET OF INDIFFERENCE

I make you to lie down in green pastures!
 HA! HA! HA!

LAS VEGAS QUICKIE

I got a whole prayer letter for her and I wrote it to her and she didn't even answer me! I gave her my heart, but she doesn't even pay any attention. And she's so afraid because she is in love with me and Jesus, and she is afraid of it!

I love you David, but it is too high a price to pay.

She runs after these silly stupid lovers. --Just because he promises to make her great! She is a slave to his God-damned sex and money, money and sex! That's all she wants.

Yet she is starved in the spirit, and it doesn't satisfy. And she'll keep on starving because she won't listen, you know? She won't listen and she won't come. So she'll suffer hell here. She missed her chance to be happy. She wants her little God-damned Jew, and he is going to lead her so far astray she is going to be a big flop, leave her high and dry. He is going to fall flat on his face and take her with him!

AAAHHHH!

Great!!!
This will make me famous!

Just because she gets her picture in "Playboy", she thinks it's great! I could make her greater!
I could put her picture in a Mo Letter!
--With six times as much circulation!

Beautiful!

David, forgive me please, I was foolish!

Some day
she is going to seek me, some day, when it's all over and she has no other love.
I'll be the last, and Jesus doesn't like that. He said, "I will have no other gods before Me"! (Ex.20:3)
She was the Lord's, but she let the World rape her, just for money!
But it's not too late. The Lord will forgive her and give her love and be sorry for her.

But it's too late for what she could have had. She could have had the best. But she settled for a quickie
— a Las Vegas quickie — just because she was pregnant.

That's the most precious gift! The Lord was good to her, giving her real love — His love — a little child;
— God's greatest gift. She will find out what love is — real love — through her children. God will have to teach her.

I wonder what it will be like to be a mother?

But she is very stubborn and rebellious and typically Jewish, and He always has to spank them very hard before they come back. They are so bull-headed and stubborn and a stiff-necked people and He has to be so hard on them because they are so hard! It's really pitiful, you know?

"He breaks the heart of your loving father, like she breaks the heart of Jesus with her naughtiness and her stubbornness and her waywardness and her wilfulness!"

She married this unbeliever! Isn't it a shame?

Sure is! I thought she was going to be with the Family of Love!

I think the World was shocked and the World was disappointed and disillusioned when she married that unbeliever and flaunted him in the face of faith when they expected her to marry us! -- Even the World knows what you should do, and they're disappointed if you don't, because they want to see the truth -- you know?

But she is one of His sheep, even though she is a little stray now. Only when she is poor and only has the Lord's love, then He'll take care of her through my boy. When her so-called husband and money leave her and desert her, then the Lord will pick her up, because I love her so much! My heart yearns for her! It goes out searching for her like the shepherd searches for the lost sheep. I will find her and she will find me. We will find each other in the Lord. Isn't that pretty? Maybe not here, maybe in the Millennium, I don't know. But I want to love her like Jesus loves her and He will love her through me. (& U?)
