

Hey, you guys!
Look! A heavy new
Mo Letter! Mo
tells us America
is going to fall in 80 days!
Wow!!

Well now, I'm going to write him right away!
"Dear Mo, GBY, your
last Letter was really good!
I think now we should get...
prepare... and change
everything I think...
that this way,
blah, blah, blah.."

INTERPRETATION!

Later
on:

?!..
- But, I didn't say that
in my letter!
This boy really misunderstood
the meaning
of my words!

I'll not back down on anything that has been a direct prophecy from the Lord! That I know is the Word of God!
But with a lot of the assumptions or guesses or whatever
you want to call them
of my natural
reasoning,
I could be mistaken...

But who the hell ever predicted the exact day that America was going to fall? -For God's sake, don't go around telling people we know the day
America's going
to fall!
-Because
I never said it!!

Yessir! Mo told us: in 80 days! Imagine!

It was like the voice
of Satan taunting me,
literally
taunting me!

Those poor little ignorant kids! — They may not have meant anything by it, but if that's what they thought I said, they were deluded by the Devil and they better get in better tune and they better read those Letters more carefully! They better be in the Spirit than Lord, rebuke these lies, in Jesus' Name!

You know a man like Nitler's got to fall. — Just because of the general principles of God, he's got to fall. I mean you don't have to be a prophet to predict that; he's already falling, for God's sake! You know America's got to be checked, you know she's got to fall. God has told us that dozens of times. — But the exact date I have never predicted!

I told you this in order to be faithful to warn you! Noah didn't know how it was going to happen either — I suppose he thought it was going to happen right away, very soon, especially as soon as he got the ark built. But he waited days and days and days after he got the ark built before it even started raining! (Gen. 7: 9,10)

That sort of thing weeds out the unbelievers and the scoffers and it makes them show their true colours!

(Jonah 1:2)

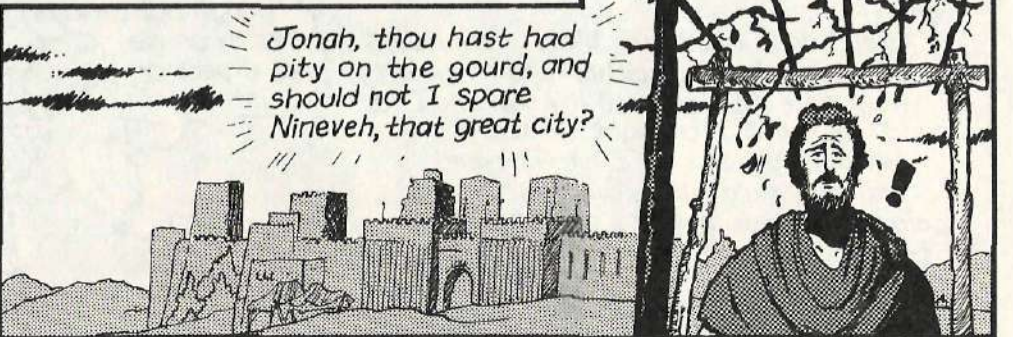

Let them try to figure out what you mean! Like the newsboy on the streets, everytime we passed him, he was holding up the new newspaper:

I mean you could have interpreted that a half a dozen different ways!

Jonah just said, "40 days and Nineveh shall be destroyed!" (Jonah 3:4) He didn't know how it was going to be destroyed. — But he just obeyed the Lord and that's all I've done! God told me to warn you and warn them and warn the World and I'm doing it! If He doesn't do what we think He will, that's His business! God's able to do it any way He wants to do it!

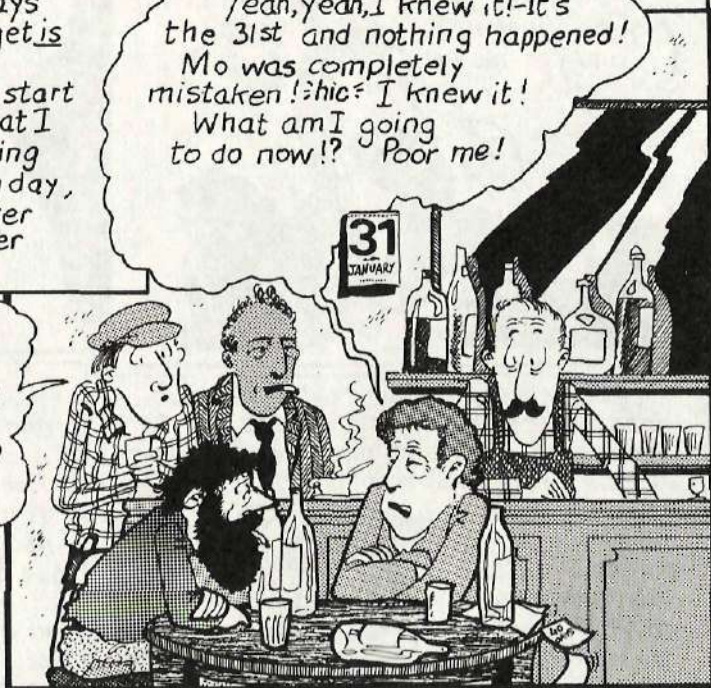

Prophets are only men and women and they are fallible and they can misunderstand and they can misinterpret, and I can be wrong with an interpretation.

But almost always the first answer I get is the right one!

-If you guys start spreading word that I said America is going to fall on the 80th day, that is a lie - I never said it and God never said it!

Yeah, yeah, I knew it! - It's the 31st and nothing happened! Mo was completely mistaken! ~~hic~~ I knew it! What am I going to do now!? Poor me!

Say, aren't those the guys who were screaming their heads off in the street, that Mo was a prophet and he knew when America was gonna fall?

We have some little Jonahs running around who are broadcasting this blah, blah, blah on the streets and expect America to fall, and then they're going to get mad and disgruntled and upset and disillusioned and start murmuring that we're false prophets because it doesn't happen!

I believe something is going to happen, that's my conviction, but I don't know how or know what or know the exact day!

But I don't want their blood on my hands! I don't want to be unfaithful and not warn the people! I delivered my soul and I've told you what I thought it means!

What God has said I know beyond a shadow of a doubt! But exactly what's going to happen, how it's going to happen, to what it's going to happen, that I don't know. I assume, it's my guess that something is going to happen! But whether we will know it has happened or not I don't know!

God's Words are still true and all will be fulfilled in His time, although not always exactly as we may expect or interpret!
