Here we're back again to the Scriptures God gave us on "All Things". If those Scriptures apply to heterosexual relationships, male and female, why can't they apply to the relationships of two women? When He's speaking of love, He says if you do it in love, against such there is no law, right? — If it is real love. Some relationships seem to be pure, innocent and very sweet, true love.

Two human souls, two human hearts can really love each other. And if it happens to be two women, so what? What's the matter with that?

You could compare normal sisterly love for each other with the wife of God. He has a multiple wife, right? And we're to love each other as brothers and sisters, although our love for Him is the greatest and we're His bride.

I'm not a strict constructionist who says, "Well, if the Bible doesn't say you can do it, why then you can't do it!" My God, if that were true there would be thousands of things we couldn't do! I'm all for what they call the "loose construction" of the constitution: Whatever isn't specifically prohibited therefore must be generally permitted! If God didn't care enough about it to make a special rule on the matter, and He didn't say you couldn't, then apparently it's okay as long as it follows the other general rules of conduct.

It is not explicitly forbidden, such as it is with men-with-men. In the Bible it says that you cannot have homosexual man-with-man sexual relationships. — This is an abomination to God! He destroyed whole civilisations for it. It's a sin! It's anti-Christ, anti-God, anti-Bible, anti-Nature! But as far as I know, I don't believe I have ever found anything in either the Bible or any other book I've studied which seems to find anything evil or bad or harmful about normal, loving, affectionate and even physical relationships between normal feminine women.

Each case has to be judged on its own merits. You could ask about a normal marriage the very same questions: 1: Is it for the glory of God? 2: Is it good for His Kingdom, His Children? 3: Is it good for you, right?

—Does it make you both love the Lord more and are you better able to love the Lord together than separately? Are you better able to work for the Lord and do the Body good by having that fellowship together? Do you work for Him better in unity together? Is it good for you personally? Is it satisfying? Do you do it by faith without condemnation? Does it have a good effect on you? And does it bear good fruit in your life and in the lives of others? Does it have a good effect on others?—Or is it harmful?

It must be in real love, not just a sexual lust. It must be done with understanding. It must be done by faith, not under condemnation, knowing your liberties in the Lord. And it must be done with mutual consent.

You have got to get in touch with God yourself and find out what is God's will for you! God leaves it up to you!

If you love Him above all things and you do all for the glory of God and you delight yourself in Him, He'll give you the desires of your heart! We have real liberty, real freedom of the Spirit and the flesh! "Whatsoever you do in word or in deed, do all to the glory of God!" That's our rule, God's rule. What are the greatest commandments? "Love God with all your heart, love your neighbour as yourself!" Okay, if it lives up to those rules, then it's for the glory of God; and if you love the Lord and you love your neighbour and it's for love and in love and has good loving results, praise God! (Col. 3:17; Mt. 22:37-39) Only Jesus can make love work!

Would you like to ask Jesus, God's Son, to come into your heart? He loves you and He wants to give you the desires of your heart, if you delight yourself in Him!

Ask Jesus into your heart today!

(Rev.3:20)
