Paul had a lot of good advice to give to young ministers and leaders, as father in the Lord to them.

"Charge some that they teach no other doctrine", a very important responsibility, "neither give heed to fables and endless genealogies, which minister questions, rather than godly edifying which is in faith: so do."

(I Tim. 1:3,4.)

THE WORD

"Now the end of the commandment is love out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned!" The Church has spent thousands of years arguing over doctrine instead of getting out and loving the whole world into the kingdom.

(I Tim. 1:5)

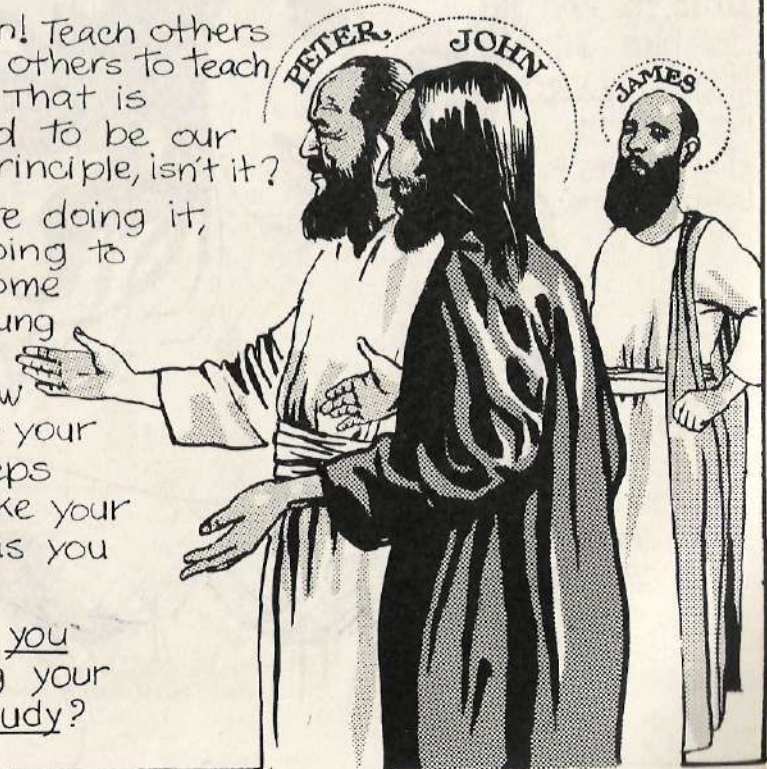

"Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity. And the things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also."

(I Tim. 4:12; II Tim. 2:2)

Pass it on! Teach others to teach others to teach others! That is supposed to be our basic principle, isn't it?

If we are doing it, we're going to have some good young leaders to follow right in your footsteps and take your place as you go on.

-Are you training your understudy?

"Preach the Word! - Be instant (eager, ready) in season, out of season!" - 2 Tim. 4:2.

Preach love!
Just ignore the ridiculous foolish questions
and preach love, Amen?

"And he
that overcometh,
and keepeth
My works
unto the end,
to him will
I give power
over the nations."
(Revelations 2:26)

"If we suffer,
we shall
also reign
with Him!"
(2 Tim. 2:12)

-Are you over-
coming, working,
suffering
here a little while?

-Then
you'll have power
and reign
with Him
Forever!
-HALLELUJAH!
