

KNEW DISCIPLES

I'd like to call our new babies "knew disciples" from the various Scriptures in the Bible in which it was said that "he knew his wife and she conceived and bare a child"! (Gen. 4:1.)

I'd say that's the best kind of disciple -- a "knew" disciple! These knew disciples are born of good Christian parents, missionaries, full-time workers for the Lord, blessed of the Lord before birth, given to you, His children, for His Service.

They are trained in the "nurture and admonition of the Lord" (Eph. 6:4) from the very start, active in His Service from their earliest years, under the direct teaching and radiant example of their very own parents...

from the very start!--What a headstart for a disciple!
That is the greatest heritage or inheritance that you could possibly give any child! It's the kind of heritage and inheritance that I received from my parents, thank God!

These ought to be the best babies in the World, doing the best job in the World for Jesus!

They should have the best and brightest future in the whole World, blessed by God!

What better new disciples could you have than that?

Hallelujah! Don't worry, God won't give you more than He knows you can handle, or that the Family can help you handle.

Let's keep on knowing those "Knew Disciples" and taking good care of them! -- And if you want to know how to take good care of them, read all about it in the Family News, Dito stories and the Letters!

God bless you all!

They seldom ever backslide and will certainly stay with you for at least a few years of background training and environment that they will never forget, and will undoubtedly go on serving the Lord for the rest of their lives!

"Children are an heritage of the Lord, and the fruit of the womb is His reward."

(Ps. 127:3)
